

An unnormalised residual collapses with the amplitude while the energy it reports never moves

